Ten Cents

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Sex in Politics

Early next month (June 4), voters of each persuasion will decide who they want to represent them in the November general election.

But prior to the primary, candidates become actors, offering up programs on which they can hook a voter's support. These programs take many forms. Some are in promises of better handouts; some promise less. There are promises of cheaper gasoline; lower priced meat and higher unemployment and welfare payments and others.

The voter picks his current need and supports the candidate who has attached himself to it.

For instance, there's a petite assemblywoman from Oakland who has come up with several gut issues in this great green and folden state that is otherwise plagued with such problems as too-high taxes; too little water; overbuilding and overwelfare.

The assemblywoman is March K. Fong who is seeking to improve her political status to that of secretary of state. Her "gut" issues are just what that label indicates.

What issue could be more understandable to a voter than overcoming the inconvenience of finding a dime to drop in the slot of a pay toilet when Nature (who shouldn't be fooled) calls?

Public toilets are for the convenience of those occupying or frequenting the building, but the dime-in-the-slot racket is usually operated by some dude who draws the cream off the top (a bad metaphor) and lives high on the hog from the proceeds of his slot-machine business.

March Fong has seen her Bill to ban pay-toilets in public places passed by the Assembly without debate.

"I am happy to see that my colleagues have become enlightened as to how many Californians, especially mothers of small children, the handicapped—and the harried traveler—take this as an important issue, both symbolically and actually," Ms. Fong said. She is the first legislator to ever get a bill on this subject out of the committee of the Legislature.

The only fly in this ointment is that many building owners may decide to remove pay toilets from their premises. That would be a set-back of a sort. It may eventually become easier to find a dime than a toilet to spend it in.

But not to be overcome by her initial victory, Ms. Fong has mothered other bills of gut-level importance.

There's one that she espoused regarding pay phones. Here again the dime is the culprit. Why should anyone with a telephonic emergency have to find a dime in his hour of need?

Her bill on telephones would circumvent the requirement that a coin be inserted in the slot under emergency conditions. Those who have had disagreements with Ma Bell are not ready to believe that an easily understood definition of "emergency" could be worked out with the telephone firm.

The third of her proposals that comes within the "gut" meaning category is pregnancy. She insists that people who claim pregnancy should be given sick leave—with the benefits attendant. She says failure to do so is sex discrimination. But since Eve enticed Adam to bite the apple, pregnancy has not been a bisexual problem. Under the Due Process Clause of the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution (upon which Ms. Fong makes her argument) would it not be equally proper for the male to be given off-time if sex discrimination is to be avoided?

As Ms. Fong says, current provisions "tend to penalize women for having the children which belong to both parents."

Using that logic, the male should also be covered by the provisions of Fair Employment and guys would flock to support Ms. Fong and her equal sexual treatment philosophy.

How else could a guy get a month off with pay as a fall-out from last season's romance?

$8.3 Million Construction Bids Awarded to SV Elevator Firm

Contracts totaling more than $8.3 million have been awarded from all parts of the state by U. S. Elevator Corporation which is located in Spring Valley.

SV Beautiful Campaign Starts

SPRING VALLEY IS BEAUTIFUL is theme of this year's clean up campaign sponsored by Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. Starting Monday, and ending in a two day finale there will be free trash hauling from several locations in the community.

Two disposal services will provide this service. They are Sani-Tainer and Thomas & Son Disposal Service. These two companies have participated in this community project since it started five years ago.

All areas of the community will be reached and residents are urged to take their old furniture, water heaters, mattresses and other junk to the pickup areas nearest their home or business. Everything brought to these sites will be hauled to the dumps free of charge according to Lee Green, Chairman of the Cleanup Committee.

Senora Inez Jaramillo De Santa, Colombian Consul to the United States, was guest at an organ concert Saturday at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Spring Valley.

The concert by Charles Rutherford, was sponsored by The Singles Club of Trinity to help finance a trip in August to the Missions of Columbia by 20 Trinity collegians.

The project cost is $10,000. The youth will provide $5,000 from their own pockets. Trinity is putting in $1,000. The balance will come from other sources. The concert, a Mexican Dinner and a Bike-A-Thon have produced $2,500.

The group is collecting newspapers and planning making crafts to be sold at a Community Art Festival on June 2nd.

Vote Due on Parks

SACRAMENTO — San Diego County will receive $6,655,630 to acquire land and develop park and recreation facilities within the county if voters approve the 1974 Park Bond Act at the June 4 election.

The allocation is based on the Department of Finance's 1980 projected population of 1,801,300 for the county. A high property has been given to a park here at the Encanto-Lemon Grove boundary.

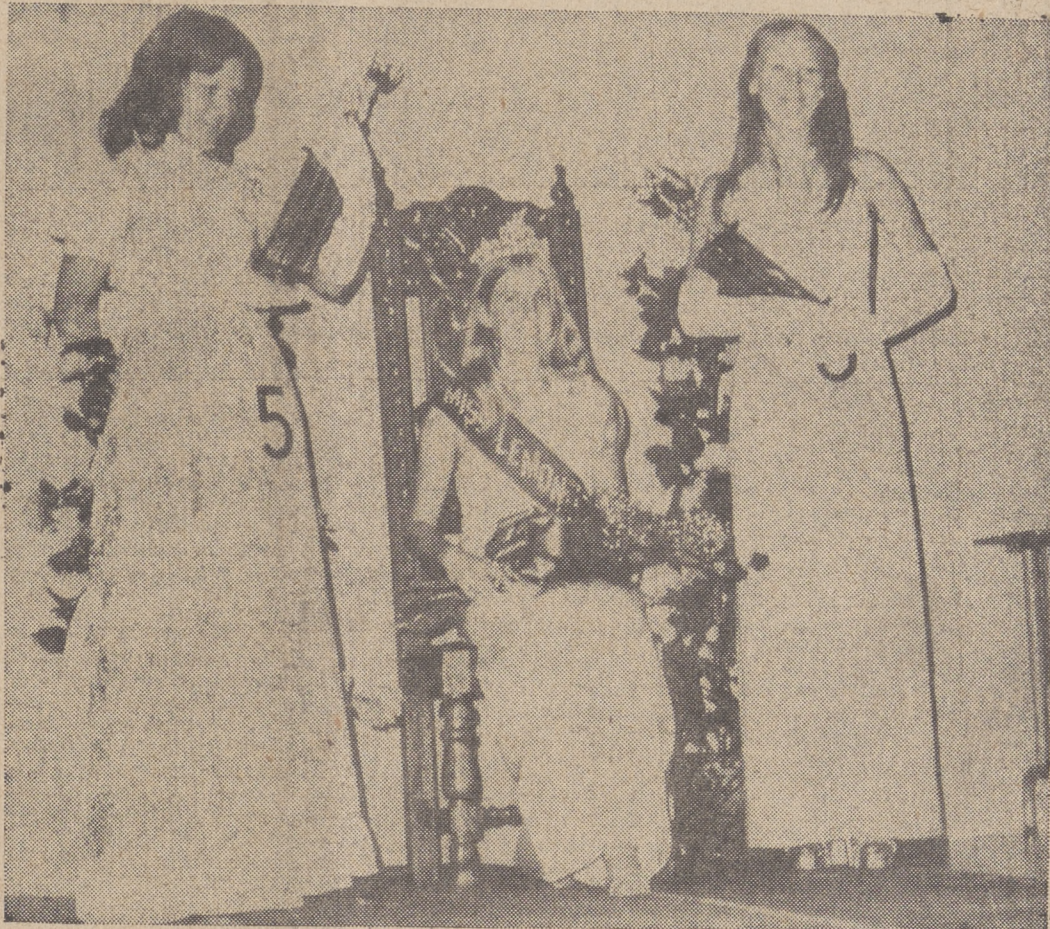

10 years ago a similar Bond Act provided $40,000,000 to local governments to fund more than 300 park and recreation projects throughout the State. "The new bond funds will go toward helping state and local governments meet their responsibility of providing for the park and recreation needs of the park and recreation needs of the State's citizens," William Mott, State Park Director said.

LG Planning Group Meeting is Tonight

The Lemon Grove Planning Association will hold an executive committee meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Golden Avenue School Auditorium.

The group will be preparing for the Planning Commission Hearing on the recently released preliminary Community Plan. The Commission hearing is set for next Tuesday evening.

Carol Klee Chosen This Year's Miss Lemon Grove

QUEEN and COURT — The new Miss Lemon Grove, Carol Klee and first and second runner-ups Cathy Liljestrom, right, and Susan LeRoy are presented to the audience after receiving their trophies.

PREPARING — Miss Lemon Grove for 1973-74, Susan Pickerd, shows Michele Dale how to attach her badge for the contest as Carol Klee (far left) Laura Danielson, Susan LeRoy and Cathy Liljestrom look on, before the pageant began.

There are so many pretty girls in Lemon Grove that the judges couldn't make up their minds who to chose for Miss Lemon Grove.

Because that is what happened Saturday night when a tie was announced and the girls running for Miss Lemon Grove had to return to be reviewed once more by the judges.

Finally, a decision was reached and Carol Klee is Miss Lemon Grove for 1974-75. The petite blonde is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klee of 8403 Daryl st. in Lemon Grove.

Carol is a senior at Mt. Miguel who wants to study music or criminology in college.

The contest, which took place at 7:30 in the Lemon Grove Junior High School auditorium, judged the girls in their bathing suits, formals and how they answered questions prepared by the Rotary Club which ran the contest.

The first runner-up in the event was Cathy Liljestrom. Cathy, also a Mt. Miguel senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Liljestrom.

The second runner-up was Susan LeRoy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeRoy of Lemon Grove. Susan is also a Mt. Miguel senior.

Entertainment for the program was provided by Drs. Sam Smith and Myron Fessler who emceed the pageant and also played with the "Ben Casel All Stars", a ragtime favorably with other districts. The possibilities for this.

Public Invited To Hear Transit Rep's Views on SV Bus Services

Prompted by over 350 telephone calls and inquiries the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce has scheduled a special General Meeting to discuss the transit situation in Spring Valley. The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held Monday night at 7:30 p.m., at SV Elementary School auditorium.

Speaking at the meeting will be J. Warren Mooers of the San Diego Transit Corporation and James Ward representing the Spring Valley Senior Citizens.

Mooers is the director of marketing and public information for San Diego Transit. He will discuss a proposed shuttle system for the Spring Valley area, the cost to the taxpayer and what options are available from the transit system. There will be a question and answer period following the talk.

Ward will speak for the senior citizens in the S.V. area. He will explain their transit needs and what they feel the San Diego Transit Corporation can do to help solve them.

The Chamber's Board of Directors felt that this meeting with the San Diego Transit System will allow residents a chance to air their feelings directly to a transit system representative, Naomi Marshall Chamber secretary said. She urged the public to attend so that their views and questions could be heard.

Sheriff Campaign For Mandatory Sentences

The Lemon Grove Sheriff's Station has petitions for placing the Mandatory Sentencing Initiative on the November ballot. Sheriff John F. Duffy, while using a firearm, or when said this week.

Duffy is heading a county-wide effort to obtain 75,000 voter signatures by May 27, cocaine, or when a professional to place the statewide issue on the ballot.

Petitions may be signed at the station or picked up by citizens wishing to help gather signatures.

The initiative stems from the failure of the State Assembly Criminal Justice Committee to allow Senate Bill 237, similar to the proposed initiative measure, to come before the Assembly for a vote.

The bill had passed the Senate by a 28-1 vote, but was killed by the Assembly committee 4-2.

"Since the committee did not even give the Assembly a chance to vote on this important and much needed bill, the California Peace Officers Association (P.O.A.C.) felt the only alternative was to go to the people," said Duffy, who is expected to head the statewide campaign following the CPAA's convention in San Diego later this month.

"These felons must be taken off the street by mandatory sentences. That's what this initiative will do if it gets before the voters and is approved by the people," Duffy said.

Grossmont College Budget Takes a $2.2 Million Jump

A $2.2 million budget increase was projected for Grossmont Colleges expenditures in the coming year at a Governing Board meeting held Tuesday night.

The only planned cut in the budget will be a $6,000 drop in health services. Instructional expenditures will go from $7.4 million this year to $8.6 for next year.

The budget predictions were made by the College Superintendent Robert Burnham who said the figure was an estimate only.

The expected income for next year will also increase. A total federal allocation should be $534,000 compared to $456,953 this year.

The state apportionment will increase $1 million dollars as well. County contributions will be up slightly, also, Burnham reported.

Letters to the Editor

April 29, 1974 thing be done about it.

Editor:

In today's public schools, the lowering of educational or moral standards are a major concern to parents.

This is to inform you that the East County Taxpayers Association is not the only organization to question and be critical of the Grossmont School District's financial policies.

After gathering facts and data for months, the Foothills Taxpayers' Association has taken a strong stand against Grossmont School District's tax measure to be voted upon June 4th. We have filed the opposition (Vote "No") argument that will be with your ballot.

Senator Stull's amendment prevents trustees from extending the 28.5 cent override unless voters approve.

Putting issues before the people is a basic American right and way.

We agree with Senator Stull on this issue of letting the people who pay the bill decide.

The schools should not be afraid to face the public in a vote if their product is good.

Dear Editor:

I want to take this opportunity to compliment you on the excellent editorial you ran in the Lemon Grove Review on February 7, 1974, under the title, "Does Big Oil Care?" You are to be congratulated on your thorough and discerning commentary on this subject.

Enclosed is an item including my own comments on the oil crisis, which I think you will find in conformity with your own very able expression.

I certainly thank and commend you for making your excellent comments available to your reading public.

Enclosed, find my renewal subscription.

With kindest regards and best personal wishes, I am Sincerely yours,

Dear Editor:

I am writing, not just as an individual, but as a spokeswoman for thousands of persons, who are concerned citizens.

The cost of living increases by leaps and bounds with no end in sight. That in itself is tragic. However, when something increases with such magnitude that it may even jeopardize the health and well-being of every person, it becomes necessary to stand-up, be heard and see that some-

The problem is the price-rate increases that the San Diego Gas and Electric has put upon us. The following are stated in notices sent by S.D. Gas and Electric Co.

"The increases are required because of the need to offset applicant's decline in earnings attributable to reductions in electric, gas, and steam sales due to conservation and to increased cost of capital."

The reason given is trivial and unjust. We, the people are being punished for rising to the needs of energy conservation. It is also ridiculous in the fact that if all persons have decreased their use of utilities, then the S.D. Gas and Electric Co. also used less fuel.

We are now pleading to you, a representative of the people, to make a stand on behalf of the citizens of El Cajon, San Diego and California. We need this help now.

Thank You

Dear Editor:

For years I have read your editorials and admired your philosophy and fine research in your Editorials.

I have finally found something, though that I disagree with you on. It is in your Editorial of May 2, 1974 called: "Gasoline Ripoff continued."

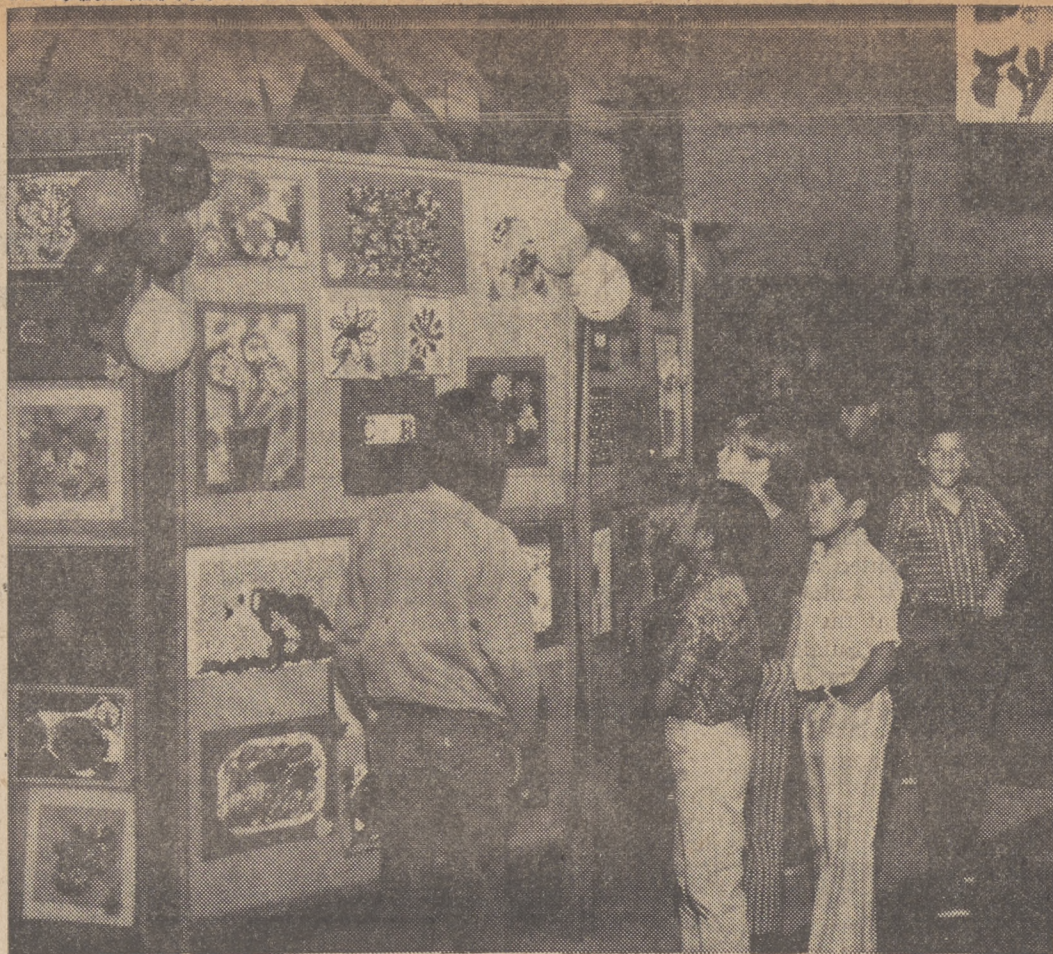

Here is what you stated: "It has been insisted in this column from time to time, that oil is a natural resource BELONGING TO THE PEOPLE." That sounds like Socialism or Communism.

Private property and the right to adventure and exploration by people who strive for personal wealth is what has made this Country rich. An individual does not have this right in Russia, Cuba, China, or many other Countries. Thus their natural resources have not been found and become available for use. The right to explore for minerals and oil, by private property owners has found the oil and minerals. The "people" could sit on top of these riches and not even know it under a Communist or Socialist government. They could not try to find the wealth.

In America this freedom has been granted. Many more people have tried to find it and FAILED, than those that tried and found it. The right to fail is tied up with the right to try. Let's not kill off the right of people to try to find and/or build. Private Enterprise is the only way to stimulate people to try to find wealth.

In Forbes Magazine, March 1, 1974, page 32 is a statement about Paul Getty and his oil business. "Despite some

Mrs. Wong, of 1494 La Corta st., in Lemon Grove, joined the Hilton organization as a waitress in 1963. Five years later she was promoted to head waitress for the San Diego Hilton, and, in 1971, was named Assistant Banquet director. In September 1972, Mrs. Wong was again promoted to her present position as Banquet director.

Announcement of this annual award came at the President's Luncheon in the Shamrock Hilton in Houston. More than 400 attending Hilton executives from around the world gave Mrs. Wong a standing ovation as Barron Hilton presented her with a bouquet of roses sent by her fellow employees in San Diego.

Hilton Hotels Corporation's president also quoted from several complimentary letters that had been received by Mrs. Wong and the San Diego Hilton Inn during the year regarding the Banquet director's tremendous performance. Because of her many contributions, the San Diego Hilton also named Lucille Wong Employee of the Year.

Proper Care Now Saves Clothes Later

With the coming of "bathing suit weather," many of us are in a rush to store our winter clothes to make room for the summer wardrobe, but putting clothes away without proper care can have expensive results next year, when ruined clothes have to be replaced.

To help you avoid costly problems when you put your winter clothes to rest for the season, remember these clothing-saving tips:

Be sure your clothes are clean before you store them. Dirt and stains attract moths and silverfish. These insects will chew up even the synthetics while feasting on spots. If the insects don't "remove" the spots, they may set with age. A spot that is easy to remove now, may be impossible to get out after several months.

Don't crowd your garments in your clothes closet. Leave space between them so they can breathe. If your closet and drawers are jammed, consider using professional storage service.

Buttons, snap snaps, and close hooks and eyes and zippers to preserve the proper shape of your garments. Hang your heavy clothes on shaped hangers to retain the natural shoulder lines.

Separate white and light garments from dark ones in your closet and in your drawers. This prevents "crocking" or the transfer of dye. Don't store vinyl garments in plastic bags. Vinyl attracts the plastic chemicals and the bag may become permanently stuck to the vinyl.

Don't store leathers and suedes in plastic bags or other air-tight containers.

This Week's RECIPE

This week, instead of the usual recipes, we are running a variety of useful cooking tips using one of the most abundant, cheapest commodities in the kitchen, water. These were sent in by the Otay Municipal Water District, and we offer grateful thanks.

From the Tap

1. Crying over onions? Pour boiling water to cover the onions in a bowl or saucepan and let stand three or four minutes. Drain, cover with cold water and peel.
2. Let grapefruit and oranges stand in hot water to cover before using the knife. They'll peel as easily as tangerines.
3. Celery curls? Cut the stalks (or ribs) in three to four inch pieces. Split each piece into thin strips to about an inch from the end. Let stand in icy water until the fine strips curl.
4. For that extra fancy salad, try peeled tomatoes. To do them the easy way, dip them in boiling water for about half a minute. Plunge them into cold water right after the hot dip.
5. When shelling Brazil nuts or pecans cover whole nuts with boiling water. Let stand one hour or longer (not on heat). Nuts will slip out of the shell in fine shape.
6. For "plumped" raisins or dates, suspend them in a sieve over boiling water for about five minutes. This will make them extra moist and juicy.
7. Use lukewarm water only when removing a jellied dish from a mold; if the jelly doesn't budge, dip the mold in warm water again. Before beginning the dipping be sure to loosen the edge with a small spatula or knife.

Orient Beckons To California Soybean

Asia represents a virtually untapped market for California agricultural produce, between agricultural exports and imports. Allan Grant, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, reported that although foreign oil last year—$9.3 billion—Asia is already the leading market for American agricultural goods, the potential for increased consumption is skyrocketing.

Grant, who accompanied Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz on a trade mission as a special advisor, visited Japan, the Philippines, Korea, Thailand, Hong Kong and the Republic of China (Taiwan).

An area of concern to most Asians was the embargo of U.S. soybeans last year. "Secretary Butz had his hands full convincing them that the U.S. would not renege on future contracts," Grant said. "Japan especially has become dependent upon U.S. soybeans as a food source. When the U.S. embargoed soybeans last year, the Japanese naturally became very nervous."

The importance to the U.S. economy of agricultural exports

New Park Rules For Off-Roaders

New off-road vehicle regulations go into effect May 15 on the national resource lands administered by the U. S. Bureau of Land Management.

The regulations apply to 450 million acres of national resource lands and were issued by the Secretary of the Interior after public review of draft regulations which included more than 100 public meetings, including 19 in California.

The regulations provide that national resource lands not designated as closed or restricted shall remain open to off-road vehicle use. This means national resource lands are open to off-road vehicle use unless specific action is taken to close or restrict ORV use for safety, protection of resources or other environmental values.

Areas and trails are to be designated by BLM officials as open, restricted or closed, based on such factors as the ability of the land and resources to sustain ORV use; scenic, cultural, ecological and environmental values; the need for public use areas for recreation; consideration of ORV use impacts on other lands, uses and resources; the potential hazards to public health and safety other than the normal risks involved in vehicle use; and consideration of wildlife and its habitat.

Copies of the new regulations are available from the California State Office, Bureau of Land Management, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, CA 95825, and will be available from BLM's six district offices in California by approximately May 10.

600 million lavished on exploration between 1963 and 1972 the company suffered a decline of over 10% in petroleum liquid reserves... the most spectacular Dud was on the North Slope of Alaska, where Getty invested nearly $90,000,000. If the oil business had been socialized—would Getty have spent $600 million trying to find more oil?

The "science of society" is a very difficult science, and there is no perfect social system found yet. But—let's not retreat to deadening bureaucratic control over all natural resources and property.

Kindest regards,

Herbert R. Ketell
753 Sacramento ave.
Spring Valley

Dear Reader Ketell:

My heart bleeds for Mr. Getty and the oil barons but not nearly as much as it bleeds for the thousands of innocent people who lost their jobs or their service station businesses as a result of Big Oil's determination to get gasoline up to $1 a gallon. An unnatural shortage almost brought us to that end.

Let's look at your inference that control of our natural resources is socialistic or communistic. Air travel, railroads, public utilities, rivers, lakes, game and fish, the ocean, air communication and others come under government supervision. Some of them are subsidized. And their books are open to proper authorities.

Oil, by your claim, is Private Enterprise—investing millions of dollars of personal wealth.

The oil depletion allowance permits Big Oil to suck our vital juices from the earth and get a tax break because the resource is being used up. They also get a great tax break when foreign countries raise the price of the oil taken for transport. NEWSWEEK recently published an article showing that in some cases the more a foreign country raised the price, the more profit the oil firm made via payoff from our government.

But when government tried to find out what oil supplies were on hand during the recent "shortage", it was found that so little record keeping is demanded of Big Oil that not even an educated guess was possible by those outside the oil families.

Let's not get into a quarrel on semantics and let's remember that subsidies disallows socialism—and Big Oil is already getting big subsidies. My beef is that B.O. is operating as a monopoly—and that's against the law.

PORAC Endorses Walsh For Lieutenant Governor

State Senator Lawrence E. dorsement for the Democratic Walsh, leading contender for candidate was made by the the Democratic nomination PORAC executive board.

for Lieutenant Governor "In my eight years as a senator I have been a strong supporter of law enforcement headquarters today at 845 Broadway with a reception and its needs in protecting California," Walsh said. "It is with special gratitude that I accept this vote of confidence from PORAC."

"Events of recent months clearly show the need for well-funded, professional law enforcement officers in this state is as strong today as ever. As lieutenant governor I will continue to devote my efforts towards maintaining a high professional standard in law enforcement."

Walsh holds a 10 percent lead over his nearest opponent. He is the choice of more than 25 per cent of the 805 persons polled in Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Orange, Riverside-San Bernardino and Fresno areas.

The poll, conducted in mid-April, showed Walsh the leader in all six of the polling areas including a 54.8 to 6.5 per cent advantage over opponent Dymally in San Diego County.

The growing support for Walsh was accented by the endorsement recently of the largest police officers organization in the state, the 16,500 member Peace Officers Research Assn. of California (PORAC). The unanimous en-requests. Van Deerlin said primary blame rests with the federal Office of Management and Budget. "OMB seems reluctant to recognize that the immigration agency is in business to provide service as well as enforce the law," he said.

"No immigration station in the country has sufficient staff," Van Deerlin went on. "Our situation in San Diego is relatively good, although people who are waiting to become citizens or get loved ones into the country might find that hard to believe."

SACRAMENTO — State Controller Hugh Flournoy announced the distribution of $54,918,644 among the State, cities and counties as the March apportionment of highway users taxes.

San Diego County's share was $890,761.

A total of $14,004,649 went directly to the counties; $10,540,036 to cities; $30,343,959 for expenditures on State Highways; and $30,000 to the Bicycle Lane Account.

The total apportionment was derived from the following sources: gasoline tax, $50,744,187; diesel fuel tax, $4,022,912; transfer from the Transportation Tax Fund, $149,502; and miscellaneous, $2,043.

The total available for the March apportionment was $10,925,636 less than that for the prior month. The gasoline tax was $9,090,574 below the February figures. The diesel fuel tax was $912,539 lower. The transfer from the Transportation Tax Fund was $50,817 more than in February. There were no interest earnings reported in March as compared to $973,504 in February.

The distribution was $7,966,306 less than that for the same month last year. The March 1974 gasoline tax distribution was $3,728,287 below that for March 1973. The diesel fuel tax distribution was $1,866,784 below March 1973. The transfer from the Transportation Tax Fund was $2,371,628 less this March.

La Mesa Lawyer in Congressional Race

John A. Brady, Democratic candidate for the 41st Congressional District is a lawyer who lives in La Mesa.

He claims that urgent changes must be made in the nation. As a Congressman, he says, he will fight for a reversal of the present trend toward demoralization in the country and will initiate economic legislation so sorely needed.

The present government is manipulated by money and power. Honest, concerned citizens need to do more than complain, he said. Retired, elderly people on fixed income don't have a chance on fixed incomes; middle income group watch their savings eaten by inflation, high interest rates and unfair taxes. Economic legislation must be enacted to bring about a change, he said.

He is senior partner in the law firm of Ashley, Brady and Cerniglia.

Public Hearing Today On Gasoline Vapor Recovery

Installation of test gasoline recovery systems will be the topic discussed by the County Board of Supervisors today during a 2 p.m. public hearing. The Board will meet in the South Chambers on the third floor of the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

The supervisors will consider a proposed addition to the County's Air Pollution Control District (APCD) Rules which would permit installation of unapproved systems, such as the vapor balance system, for testing purposes.

The vapor balance system, which has not been approved by the APCD, has been proposed by several oil companies as the most appropriate solution to the gasoline vapor recovery problem in San Diego.

Frank Panarisi, Health Care Agency Administrator, is recommending the addition to APCD Rules to allow installation of the unapproved systems for testing purposes. In late March, the supervisors extended compliance to the July to December of 1974 to allow for a complete evaluation of the effectiveness of vapor recovery systems.

These Rules require that during the storage and transfer of gasoline, all vapors which might otherwise be lost to the atmosphere be collected and passed through a disposal device. This disposal device must recover 90 per cent of the vapors passing through it.

Between now and December when the two Rules take effect, an addition to the APCD Rules is necessary to permit installation of unapproved systems for testing purposes. The December compliance date for operation of approved vapor systems will not be altered if the Board adds to the APCD Rules to permit installation of unapproved systems for testing purposes.

In late March, the supervisors extended compliance to the July to December of 1974 to allow for a complete evaluation of the effectiveness of vapor recovery systems.

Bill Craven Wins Teamsters Backing

Assemblyman Bill Craven, running for re-election in the newly reapportioned 76th District, has announced that his candidacy has been endorsed by the California Teamsters Legislative Council.

At their April statewide convention, the Council voted to support Republican Assemblyman Craven and recommend his candidacy through their California newspapers and publications.

Craven said that he was both honored and pleased to receive the Teamsters' backing and would do his very best to represent all the people of his district to warrant the confidence shown in him.

Rippee Named Head Of Brian Campaign

Dr. Earl Brian, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, today announced the appointment of San Diego insurance man William B. Rippee to be chairman of the county Brian for U.S. Senate Committee.

Rippee has owned and operated his own insurance firm since 1951. Presently his business has 32 full-time agents. A World War II Marine veteran Rippee was awarded the Navy Cross and Purple Heart for action in the Marianas Islands. He left the Marines in 1946 having achieved the rank of major.

Brian, 32, formerly served in Governor Ronald Reagan's cabinet as Secretary of the State Health and Welfare Agency. He resigned in February to seek the Senate seat now held by Alan Cranston.

Deddeh Gains Police Support

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh (D-Chula Vista) has been endorsed for re-election by the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC) according to Bill Bean, statewide President.

PORAC represents 17,000 individual peace officers and 200 peace officer associations throughout the state of California, including police and other peace officers throughout San Diego County and Deddeh's 80th Assembly District.

"This endorsement," Deddeh added, "is particularly important to me because I know it comes after detailed research of my voting record on the issues of concern to California peace officers."

"Because the question of law and order with justice is such an important one, I am proud that my voting record on this issue and others has earned me the support of PORAC," Deddeh concluded.

Helen Douglas To Head Roth Campaign

William Matson Roth, Democratic candidate for governor, announced the appointment of former Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas as Honorary Chairman of the Roth for Governor Committee.

In a statement issued from his Los Angeles headquarters, Roth expressed "pride that so distinguished a person as Ms. Douglas has offered her support and will campaign for me during these closing weeks."

Ms. Douglas, who was an alternate delegate to the first assembly of the United Nations, said she was cancelling travel and other plans to campaign for Roth beginning May 23 in Los Angeles.

Hafey Decked—Wins; Love Fights Friday

Fight fans at the Coliseum Arguello May 17. Arguello is ranked world 4.

For a moment it looked as though it was the end of the road for scrappy Art Hafey, the phenom featherweight who has punched his way to world ranked third.

Ricardo Garcia, of Mexico, clipped Hafey alongside the head three times with lefts and rights and dropped him to the canvas for a mandatory count of eight.

"I was dazed but not worried," Hafey said at an after-fight party at which he stuck to drinking colas. "I knew I was in top condition and needed only a couple of seconds to clear my head."

The fight lasted 2 minutes and 36 seconds into the second round with Hafey the winner. He rocked the Mexican fighter with a left hook and dropped him for the count with a right to the jaw. Garcia was still dazed when he left the ring. Ringsiders agree that Hafey fights like a heavy-weight. Hafey's record now stands at 35-6-2 with 23 KO's, a record he carries to Nicaragua for a fight with Alex

The winner of that fight has a chance of getting a go against the durable Mario Marquez of Mexico.

Love Is Back

The "new" David Love will be back Friday to top a 10 round middleweight battle against the durable Mario Marquez of Mexico.

Love is new because he has acquired new confidence following a fallow period of bad advice having to do with matchups. Now he has the services of Angelo Dundee of Miami who may bring Love along the same pathways as he did Muhammad Ali.

Coliseum operator Mickey Davies said that ticket sales were brisk for the Friday affair which includes a companionpiece to the Love-Marquez battle.

In this one Eddie Logan, of Baltimore, a featherweight stablemate of Bobby Chacon will meet Francisco "Papero" Rodriguez of Tijuana. Davies says both fights should provide "plenty of action" Friday.

Two prelims are also carded at 8:15 (Taped versions are The Coliseum is at 13th and sold in various cities across E sts. Television lights go on the nation).

Lead Changes Frequently In Cajon Speedway Feature

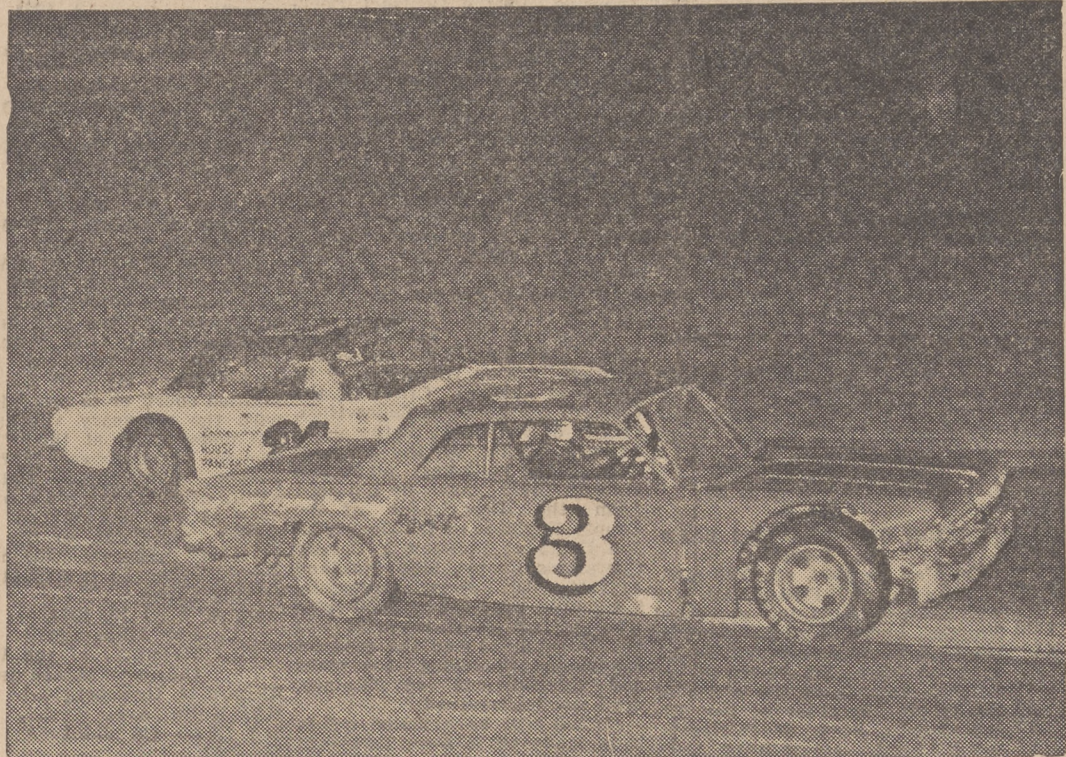

For a while Tim Biggers thought second place was the best he was ever going to get at Cajon Speedway.

That all changed Saturday when he captured his first super stock main event, setting a track record in the process.

The 33-year old El Cajon veteran of nine seasons took the lead on the 25th lap following a spin-out by leader Russ Bullen and went on to nip challenging Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove by a half car length.

His 1962 Tempest was clocked in nine minutes, 04:60, topping the old record of 9:12:76 established two weeks ago by Hitt, the current points leader.

Since a yellow flag, the third of the race, bunched the field on the 25th lap it was a tight finish among the rest

Aztec Trackmen At West Coast Relays

Steve Williams will head a San Diego State group heading for the West Coast Relays Saturday in Fresno's Ratcliffe Stadium.

Williams, who tied the world record in the 100 yard dash at the West Coast Relays last year with a 9.1 will defend his title against some of the top Sprinters in the country on Ratcliffe's dirt track.

"Everyone likes to discuss Steve's chances at breaking the world record in the 100," said Aztec track coach Dick Hill, "but I think he has a great chance. I think if he breaks it, it will come on a day when Steve is running on a track he likes, with good competition and good weather."

The other Aztec entries in the meet will be Garry Greene in both the College Division 120-yard high hurdles and 440-yard intermediate hurdles, Harold Williams in the College Division 100-yard dash and Tom Lux in the Invitational two-mile. The Aztecs will also enter an 880 relay team of Tyler, Greene, Harold and Steve Williams. Harold Williams will be out to crack the NCAA qualifying standard of 9.5 in the 100. He has already qualified in the 200.

Last week the Aztecs won their first dual meet in two years, topping UC Santa Barbara 92-61. Steve Williams led the win with a 9.5 in the 100, while Don Tyler ran 21.8 in the 220 and Harold Williams 48.7 in the 440.

Steve Anderson won the 880 in 1:55.0, Tom Lux, Mike Weaver and Hal Tozer swept the mile with Lux winning in 4:07.9, Garry Greene won the 440 IH in 53.3 and Dave Dixon won the hot put with a toss of 41-5 1/2.

San Diego State also won both relays with makeshift teams as Jim Redd sat out the meet with an injury.

When Gov. Stephen Austin organized the famed Texas Rangers to clean up crime, he paid the first 10 men to join $15 a month from his own pocket.

Hitt leads the standings with 540 points while Bullen is next with 373; Stahl with 371, and Overman, 315 and Spencer 305 points respectively.

Garretson Named To Shrine Game

Rick Garretson, the only high school player signed by the San Diego State football team, has been picked to play in the annual Shrine North-South game July 27 in Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl.

The game pits the top 28 senior high school football players from northern and southern California.

Garretson is a 5-11, 185 wide receiver from Servite High School in Anaheim.

And even if they changed their minds and went somewhere else, then you would have had plenty of time to bring the junior varsity here.

But why did you choose to slam the door while the NHL was holding out its hand? Do you harbor a death wish or something? Everything was going your way. Lennie Bloom's little dream world blew away when Chula Vista voters said no. The NHL was on the public spot to put up or shut up. And if they went elsewhere in the next expansion, Bob Breitbard would be on the hot seat, not you.

You know, after a week or so of mulling things over, the loyal and true blue Gull fans are getting mighty angry. They figure you sold them out. After eight years of waiting, they figure you blew them out with just six weeks to go. There's talk of mass meetings and letters to the elected officials who must pass judgment on what you can get away with.

As you know, public officials pay attention to such activities, especially in an election year. And Peter, this happens to be an election year.

But all that is in the push and shove of big business and power politics. What I would really like to know is, why did you do it now? Six weeks from now you could have been a hero, or could have been looking forward to NHL play in your operation.

But now slamming the door shut now... it just doesn't make any sense to do it now. Peter, guess I just flat don't understand you.

Soccer Play Here for National Championship

The four top junior soccer teams in the nation will meet in San Diego, June 1 and 2, to determine the winner of the 1974 National Junior Soccer Challenge Cup.

San Diego, home of the Western Region Champion for the past two seasons, was selected as the site for the semifinals and finals which will be played in Balboa Stadium.

Ironically, this is the first year in quite sometime that San Diego will not be in the finals. In April the San Diego Sparta team was eliminated in the sudden-death play-offs by a determined Pico Rincera team.

In 1972, San Diego had placed third in the National Cup finals held at Trenton, N.J. And last year the San Diego Sparta team took second place in the finals at Dallas.

Junior soccer players range in age from 17 to 19 years. National Cup competition in this age group has been held continuously since 1935, with champions from the East, Midwest, South and West meeting to determine the top team.

The finals this year are under the auspices of the San Diego County Youth Soccer Federation, the City of San Diego and the U. S. Soccer Football Association.

Interest in soccer among young people in San Diego increased 50% in player enrollment last year. Today, the Soccer Federation has a total of 200 teams with 2600 players from ages 6 to 15 throughout San Diego County.

There are also 41 San Diego high school teams representing 1500 players in the California Interscholastic Federation.

Seven Junior Colleges have soccer teams as well as S.D. State, U.S.I.U. and U.C.S.D. Approximately 400 teams throughout the U. S. enter the regional competition for the Challenge Cup playoffs. Last year's national champion team came from Baltimore.

The program for the meet will include two semi-final games Saturday, June 1, and finals games Sunday.

Tickets are available from members of Youth Soccer Federation teams, or at Metro Ticket Agency offices.

Griffs Champs in Conference Track

For the fifth straight time Grossmont College has won the Mission Conference track and field championship meet. The Griffs scored 174½ points to finish 20 ahead of second place Citrus.

In addition, the Griffs qualified 32 athletes for the S. Cal. regionals at Chaffey College.

Grossmont's best effort in the conference finals came in the mile as Bob Wilson (4:10.7) and George Pullen (4:11.7) went 1-2 on Palomar's Lee Dick who previously had beaten both men on two occasions this year.

Another standout for the Griffs was Doug Baldwin. Although he did not win an event, he placed second in the high jump (6-6) and triple jump (46-10) and third in the long jump (23-1½).

HEART ALERT — TV star Don Galloway, left, chairman of S.D. Operation Heart Alert, chats with driver of a local ambulance firm. Galloway will be on hand June 1-2 at College Grove Center where local Kiwanis club members will aid S.D. County Heart Assn. doctors and nurses screen residents for high blood pressure.

Kiwanis Club to Aid in 'Operation Heart Alert'

Don Galloway, star of NBC-TV's "Tronside," will again chair Operation Heart Alert, a weekend when Agua Caliente commences its second week of operation.

Saturday a crowd of more than 20,000 attended the opening day meet. Sunday, 15,000 showed up. There were certain conveniences missing, but as the days progress, these will be cared for. Betting window signs and too few payoff windows created the most confusion.

This week, as in opening week, 12 races will be run each of the weekend days starting at 12:30 sharp.

The 5-10 is again in operation; the daily double on the second and third races; the quinella on the 1st and 12th races, and the Exacta on the 6th, 8th and 12th.

The road to Caliente has been improved, part of the way.

High blood pressure is twice as prevalent among black Americans as whites. And for every black person afflicted with sickle cell anemia, one hundred have hypertension.

Persons screened during Operation Heart Alert who are found to have high blood pressure are referred to their physicians, according to Mike Carlen, president of the L.G. Kiwanis club. They are referred if they have a systolic reading (pressure inside the arteries when the heart contracts at each beat) higher than 140, a diastolic reading (the pressure level during the time the heart muscle is relaxed) higher than 90, or if both are high.

Members of the Kiwanis and Kiwanianes clubs will serve at the registration counter.

Tennis Lesson

Backhand is Grandmother's 'Rugbeater'

RANCHO BERNARDO—Ed Collins, director of the Rancho Bernardo Tennis College, offers tips for improving the backhand stroke during the two-day, crash course in tennis fundamentals at The Inn at Rancho Bernardo.

"The backhand is probably the most difficult tennis stroke for most people," said Collins. "But, it's easy... it's the same motion our grandmothers used when they beat their rugs on the clothes line."

Collins said the imaginary "fantastic button" is located on the left hip bone.

His instructions: "Bring the racket back until the wrist hits the 'fantastic button' then reach out for the ball one foot in front of the body — then follow through until the arm pit is aimed at the opponent."

Collins has an exercise which helps to develop the muscles in the forearm necessary for a strong backhand.

"Hold the tennis racket at shoulder level with the proper backhand grip and swing the head of the racket in a circular motion. Students can do this exercise for a few minutes at first. Eventually the muscles will develop and so will the strength that is needed to hit a strong backhand, Collins says.

Another suggestion is to spin the racket in the hand between shots. This nervous reflex will give the arm a chance to relax and will help keep your grip dry.

Anti-Pay Kidnap Law Proposed

SACRAMENTO—Legislation prohibiting the paying of ransom to kidnapers by corporations and trusts was proposed today by Attorney General Evelle J. Younger and Senator Dennis E. Carpenter.

Corporations, charitable trusts, their officials and employees would be prevented by law from responding to any extortion demands.

The proposed measures would also prevent any extortionist from obtaining favorable treatment or release of criminals through extortion or kidnapping.

Carpenter described the measures as "an effort to take the profit out of future kidnappings, such as the Hearst case."

"If potential kidnapers, whether politically motivated or simply for monetary gain, know that they will be unable to extort corporation ransom in return for their victims it will act as a deterrent," Carpenter said.

Caliente Races Fill Stands

TIJUANA — Another "full house" is anticipated this weekend when Agua Caliente commences its second week of operation.

Saturday a crowd of more than 20,000 attended the opening day meet. Sunday, 15,000 showed up. There were certain conveniences missing, but as the days progress, these will be cared for. Betting window signs and too few payoff windows created the most confusion.

Bimbo's Circus Rated High

The plot centers around a circus clown whose ambition is to be a rock music star.

He leaves the circus and finds the real world is extremely tough and he fails to reach his goal.

He becomes a star in his dreams. But even then success becomes a bitter pill and he finds true happiness back where he belongs with the circus and his family.

The music is an intimate part of the play. It is well done and there is something for everyone's musical taste.

Hard rock, soft love songs and some humorous music tell the story of Bimbo's Magic Circus.

The players established an early rapport with the audience and played their roles, which were varied, quite believably.

For those with Puritan taste the play is not to be recommended. It is quite blunt, both symbolically and telling it like it is.

To the rock musical buff, must. B.B.

The Portuguese have occupied Portuguese Guinea for half a century.

The Department of Motor Vehicles is no longer transferring vehicle titles to individuals or garages who claim ownership following lien sales under provisions of the Civil Code. The provisions were declared unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court.

In the past, DMV handled up to 90,000 such lien sale property transfers a year, Department Director Robert Cozens said.

The lien law provided that a garage operator could retain possession of a vehicle pending payment of bills for labor, repair, materials, towing or storage. If the customer did not pay the bill, the garage man could then sell the vehicle at a public lien sale provided he gave proper notice of the sale to the registered and legal owners of the vehicle.

When all of the requirements of the law had been met, the buyer could file papers with the department and transfer ownership to his name.

In order to transfer title to an applicant, Cozens said, DMV clerks must receive a properly endorsed certificate of ownership ("pink slip"), or a court order, along with usual supporting documents.

The Court, on April 10, 1974, held that some of these procedures violated due process provisions of both the California Constitution and the United States Constitution because they failed to provide a hearing for the owner before his property was sold.

DMV has been specifically prohibited in the decision from transferring vehicle ownership based upon lien sale. The Court however upheld that portion of the lien law permitting garages to retain possession of vehicle while awaiting payment for their service.

Persons with claims to vehicles resulting from liens may establish ownership by agreement with the registered and legal owner, or by court action.
